

The Utah County Public Defender Association is seeking to fill an attorney position. The position is open to members in good standing with the Utah State Bar Association, with 1-3 years of experience in the practice of criminal law. The position is limited to practice in the Utah County Fourth District Court. The position includes handling large felony and misdemeanor caseloads through all stages of the district court proceedings, including pretrial, trial, sentencing, and probation violation hearings. For more information, please contact Debbie Hill, Assistant Director, Utah County Public Defender Association, at debbieh@utcpd.com or 801-852-1070.